Are You Ready for the

Mega Sales Season?

Dear Business Owner,

If you're reading this, you're probably facing the same challenge thousands of Singapore businesses encounter every Q4: How do you capture the massive 10.10, 11.11, 12.12, Black Friday, Christmas, and Chinese New Year opportunity when your marketing budget is a fraction of what big brands spend?

You've likely tried:

X

Facebook ads (expensive)

Instagram posts (no reach)

Traditional agencies (overbudget)

Here's what nobody tells you:

While you're competing on price with bigger brands who can afford to lose money, smart local businesses play a different game. They turn their actual customers into their marketing team.

What You'll Discover:

→

Why traditional marketing costs 35% more

→

The 92% trust statistic that changes everything

→

Real case studies from Singapore brands

Chapter 1

Why Your Marketing Isn't Working Anymore

Let's start with an uncomfortable truth: The marketing playbook from 2020 is dead.

The Facebook/Instagram Trap

Remember when your posts reached your followers? Today, Instagram organic reach is below 2% according to Hootsuite's 2025 Social Trends Report. Meta's advertising costs in Southeast Asia increased 35% in 2024 (eMarketer/Insider Intelligence), forcing businesses to pay more for less visibility.

The Brutal Math:

Chapter 2

The Modern Customer Journey

How Singaporeans Really Buy in 2025

1

Phase 1: Discovery (Social Media)

Scrolling TikTok/Instagram, sees genuine content from someone like them

"Wah, this one looks nice sia!"

TikTok

Instagram

YouTube

■■ Problem: Your brand isn't creating this authentic content

2

Phase 2: Validation (Research)

Searches on Shopee, checks reviews, makes decision

"Eh, reviews not bad leh, 4.5 stars!"

Critical Moment: No reviews = Lost sale

■■ Problem: Your competitors have 50+ reviews, you have 3

3

Phase 3: Purchase (Timing)

Waits for sale, adds to cart, completes purchase

"Wait for 11.11 can save more, shiok!"

11.11

12.12

Payday

■■ Problem: They buy whoever they trust most

The Gap in Your Marketing

Notice what's missing? At every step, customers are looking for social proof from people like them

, not advertisements from brands.

Discovery Gap

You need authentic content from real users

Trust Gap

You need genuine reviews with photos

Decision Gap

You need peer recommendations

Why Creator Marketing Works: The Psychology of Trust

The modern customer journey reveals a crucial insight:

Customers don't trust brands anymore. They trust each other.

What Brands Say

How Creator Marketing Fills Every Gap

✓

Discovery Phase:

10-30 creators posting authentic content = your products appearing naturally in feeds

✓

Validation Phase:

Real reviews with photos on marketplaces = instant credibility when customers search

✓

Purchase Phase:

Multiple touchpoints from different creators = trust compounds over time

The Breakthrough Strategy

Stop creating ads that people skip.

Start creating experiences that people share.

Creator content + Strategic ad boosting = 4x better performance

Chapter 3

Your Q4 Creator Marketing Playbook

Understanding Creator Marketing

This IS NOT:

- Hiring mega-influencers with 100K followers
- Paying $5,000 for one post
- Fake endorsements
- Celebrity marketing

This IS:

- 20-50 real customers (500-5K followers)
- Actual product purchase + review
- Genuine product experiences
- Authentic peer recommendations

Chapter 4

Real Businesses, Real Results

Even Giants Use This Strategy

Unilever & P&G; • Malaysia & Singapore

When global giants wanted to launch in Southeast Asia, they didn't just rely on TV commercials.

They partnered with 250 everyday users who purchased, tried, and shared genuine experiences.

The Lesson:

Even billion-dollar brands know that authenticity beats celebrity. If it works for them with unlimited budgets, imagine what it can do for you.

Local F&B; Success Story

Monster Curry • Singapore

Launching their new Combo Curry Ramen, Monster Curry didn't compete with McDonald's ad budget. They got 18 real customers to visit, try, and share their authentic dining experience.

The Lesson:

F&B; success isn't about paid actors pretending to enjoy food. It's real customers sharing genuine experiences that drive foot traffic.

Beauty Without Celebrity Endorsements

TIGI Bed Head • Singapore

Competing with L'Oréal and Dove, TIGI proved you don't need celebrity endorsements. They worked with just 15 nano-creators who genuinely loved their products and could show real hair transformations to their friends and followers.

How to Start Your First Campaign

Two Paths Forward

Option A: Do It Yourself

What you'll need to do:

Reach out to 50-70 creators manually via Instagram

Negotiate with each individually & get 10-20 to join at your rates

Create contracts and agreements

Ship products to each creator

Follow up constantly for content

Process payments individually

What Makes a Good Campaign Brief?

Your Story (Keep it Simple)

"We're a local skincare brand that makes products specifically for Singapore's humid climate."

What Makes You Different

"Unlike international brands, we formulate for Asian skin in tropical weather."

Clear Instructions

- Try product for one week

- Share honest experience
- Post on Instagram/TikTok
- Leave Shopee review with photos

Pro Tip:

The less scripted, the more authentic. Give guidelines, not scripts.

Your First Campaign Checklist

Define your goal

Awareness? Credibility? Traffic?

Set your budget

Based on campaign goals

Choose products

Bestseller or new launch

Write your story

Why should people care?

Prepare samples
